To whom it may concern

This is to certify and confirm that Mr. Nishaka Mahesh Jayalath completed the internship training in our organization from 26th January 2026 to 9th June 2026 at Engineering Department as an Industrial Engineering Intern and he was trained in the following areas.

- Developed and maintained comprehensive Power BI dashboards to track individual employee efficiency and monitor overall manufacturing performance.
- Conducted detailed line capacity analysis, capacity studies, and production studies to optimize floor throughput.
- Analyzed plant downtime and style changeovers to identify bottlenecks and implement continuous improvement initiatives.
- Designed, updated, and maintained employee skill matrices to support strategic workforce allocation and line flexibility.
- Supported Industrial Engineering teams by recording operational videos of manufacturing processes and assisting in General Sewing Data (GSD) motion analysis to optimize cycle times.
- Performed in-depth employee absenteeism analysis and conducted targeted productivity improvement studies.
- Analyzed low-efficiency employee performance data to help identify root causes and support floor management interventions.
- Evaluated style changeover metrics and calculated line wise PPH (Pieces Per Hour) to monitor production velocity.
- Participated actively in line balancing and production optimization activities to ensure a smooth, efficient workflow across assembly lines.
- Tracked hourly production output and developed dynamic Excel dashboards for real-time performance monitoring.
- Contributed to "Project Prepared productivity reports and high level presentations specifically for the Body Protection (BP) department.

- Built automated, data driven tracking and reporting solutions by integrating Power BI, Excel, and Power Automate workflows.
- Monitored day to day manufacturing performance and analyzed operational data to drive ongoing continuous improvement projects.

During this tenure with us, Mr. Nishaka Mahesh Jayalath was able to demonstrate following professionalism aligned with above scope. We observed him to be an honest, hardworking, and self-confident young trainee who performed duties entrusted to him delicately and dynamically. We are confident that he will excel his dedication to the work of any prospective employer, and he would be an asset to any organization. We wish him all the success in his future endeavors.
